

Common Drugs Used on ITU that should be avoided in patient with prolonged QT interval

This list is not exhaustive. Drugs included on list A must be discuss with the consultant on duty prior to prescribing.

LIST A

Azithromycin
Chloral Hydrate
Chlorpromazine (and other phenothiazine)
Ciprofloxacin (and other quionlones)
Clarithromycin
Disopyramide
Domperidone
Erythromycin
Flecainide
Fluconazole
Foscarnet
Granisetron
Haloperidol
Itraconazole
Ketoconazole
Methadone
Nicardipine
Octreotide
Ondansetron
Phenylephrine
Phenytoin
Salbutamol
Sotalol
Tacrolimus
Tricyclic Antidepressants (and some SSRIs)
Triclofos
Voriconazole

LIST B, emergency drugs can also cause QT prolongation but may not be practical to wait for Consultant decision.

LIST B

Adrenaline
Amiodarone
Dobutamine
Dopamine
Ephedrine
Isoprenaline
Noradrenaline